We announce the name of Capt. T. F. Wallace for County Register, and W. A. McTeer for Circuit Court Clerk,

THE GREEN SECTION DEING EX-PLAINED .- For several days our town has been all excitement The citizens from the county have been flowing in from all directions. We could distictly hear them ask, Have you heard the news? Yes! I was in town yester day; is it not astonishing, worderful strange? But I heard some of my neighbors say it is as true as preaching that Greer and Cowan are just in receipt of their Fall and Winter goods. The largest and the best assorted stock ever brought in this market. What seems to astonish the people is the remarkably low price. Go, satisty yourselves. We called in and found the goods to speak for themselves. We would say to those that have not got their fall supply, now is the time to get cheap goods, Remember old James Wilson House,

Our worthy fellow citizen W. T. Parham has just added another supply to his already large assortment of Dry Goods, we can assure our friends if they will call on him he is just the man that can give them a full outfit in in the goods line.

"Competition is the Life of Thade." Dont fail to see the card of C. T Cates in another column.

It is gratifying to see the large trade Greer and Cowan, W. T. Parham and James A. Goddard carry on with this and adjoining counties. Maryville seems to be a center point or the sturdy farmers and mechanics, o lay in their supplies of family nec. ssaries, and as the above firms are ionducted by gentlemen of integrity and of a pleasing business turn, no wonder they receive a large patronage, Their sales for this week show deci ledly an increase of trade.

IMPROVEMENTS, -We see our enter. prising fellow citizens, A. McConnell and H. O. Wilson, have crected new lwellings in East Marvville.

The above is a bright omen, we hope re long to see our town regain its former appearance. Maryville before he war was a thriving village, the cent win the day # O Yours very truly, fer of trade for many miles around.

With its present advantages of a healthfull and picturesque location, and the railway that in a short time from the South and West, will certainly make Maryville one of the most populous and thriving towns in Eastern Tennesce. We desire the emigration of more such enterprising spirits as McConnell and Wilson.

I fell in with some Texas and Alabama rebels when traveling through Virginia, whoswered exulting over the reported Democratil ic triumph in Pennsylvania and Ohioc and wondering if President Johnsone vol Oh, friends of my mortal years, would not now have backbone enough to regulate Congress, and the natione at Noure walking so Il the valu of tears generally; they spoke freely of the ent reaction against the Radicals.
